2. Young Woman street photoshoot:

A young woman, likely in her late teens or early twenties, light-skinned Caucasian, with a sophisticated and elegant hairstyle. Her light blonde hair is styled in a voluminous updo, with soft waves and curls framing her face. Her expression is serene and engaging, gazing directly at the camera. The makeup is subtle and flattering, featuring neutral eyeshadow, defined eyebrows, and a soft, rosy pink lipstick. She's wearing a simple, close-fitting black dress with a slightly gathered neckline and three-quarter length sleeves, appearing smooth and flowing in texture. The dress material looks like a luxurious, smooth fabric such as satin or silk. The lighting is natural, soft, and well-balanced, casting no harsh shadows, creating a beautiful, flattering light on her skin. Outdoor setting, a city street with blurred gray and beige buildings in the background. The composition is a close-up portrait, focused on the face and upper body of the subject. The perspective is slightly angled, capturing the subject from a mid-range viewpoint. The overall atmosphere is sophisticated, elegant, and approachable. High-quality portraiture, natural light, beautiful skin tones. Detailed and accurate rendition of hair, makeup, and attire is a key feature of the image.
